To whom it may concern:

I, the undersigned, Larysa Martynovych, assistant to the Dean of Mathematics, Physics and Information Technologies Faculty, Odesa I.I. Mechnykov National University, do hereby that Mr. Vitalii Strashnov, born on December 8, 2005 in Odesa, Ukraine, has been a student of very high standing throughout his enrollment in our bachelor of computer engineering.

In addition to his consistently high academic achievement, Mr. Strashnov has been cited to me by professors as an active participant in his courses as well as an individual capable of using his combined knowledge in various subjects to solve case studies and exercises presented in class.

Mr. Strashnov's maturity, sense of initiative and good humor have been greatly appreciated by staff, classmates, and faculty. He has a high level of knowledge in programming and high analytical skills, he is also very good at working in a team.

Based on his overall performance and strong interest in the field of Information technologies I am convinced that Mr. Strashnov will continue to be driven by the same motivation and initiative that have characterized his undergraduate studies.

I am pleased to provide her with my highest recommendations. Feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.

Larysa Martynovych
